Clients & Appearances:

TORRIAN SCOTT

Torrian Scott is a vibrant leader who has a well-established history in business, corporate and nonprofit management, along with personal and professional development. He is a graduate of Oral Roberts University with a degree in Business Management and resides in the Greater Los Angeles area with his wife and three kids.

With over 20 years of leadership experience, Torrian has found that his heart's passion is to help develop individuals, executive leaders, and organizations discover their true purpose, release their true potential, and operate in their true destiny.

Torrian is a speaker, mentor, and coach and has helped countless individuals and organizations break through barriers to their success. With a wide variety of clients that range from entrepreneurial startups,

CEOs, actors, and athletes, Torrian takes his clients through the process of defining their purpose, developing their potential, and to arrive at the destiny they set out for. He has a proficiency in executive strategic management, finance, business, leadership and organizational development, fundraising, team building, communication, risk management, entrepreneurship, and personal coaching and counseling.

Torrian has successfully spearheaded an initiative to raise $4.75 million for an organization whose dream was to build a new building to serve the needs of their special needs community. The building stands today, and is a reminder, for all who have a dream, to "keep believing".

Torrian's ability to inspire has allowed him to lead and speak to thousands per year, coach an assortment of individuals, helping them get the most out of their profession.

In his bestselling book, Running After Destiny, Torrian instructs the student of success on how to get most out of their life by not settling for their current situation.

Torrian is in demand across the country to coach and speak at conferences, universities, retreats, seminars, boardrooms, and staff development meetings.

I have been witness to Torrian operating in public groups of thousands and have been privileged to have one-on-one mentorship he cares just as much for one as he does the Masses.
